RED OAK CHURCH TO BEGIN EVENING SERVICES.

On Sunday night, December 4, the Red Oak Baptist Church at Oakville, will commence evening worship services. The services will bgin at 8 o'clock, and will be preceded at 7 o'clock by the regular Training Union Hour. There will be a hymn sing at the beginning many of those of the membership of each service. It is hoped that many of those of the membership of the church who are unable to attend the morning worship services will take advantage of this opportunity to worship at this time. Through much prayerful discussion and study the decision was made to begin the evening worship services.

A cordial invitation is extended to all who would desire to come together and worship God with us at the close of the Lord's Day.
